Dear Education-minded Friends,

Thank you for visiting the website for the charitable fund established by the Dabiri Foundation in the name of my grandfather, Dr. Mohammad Ali Modjtahedi. As I did, most of you who knew my grandfather respected his intelligence, love of education, kind heart, strong principles, and relentless pursuit of the education of Iranian youth. The objective of the Fund established in his name is to provide zero interest loans to students of Iranian Heritage and to fulfill his wish and counsel that we "be united and help the youth of your country". No one is likely to better help Iran and its youth than educated Iranians and those of Iranian heritage.

The Fund is being administered as a zero-interest loan, to ensure that every dollar contributed by the generous contributors goes as far as possible. Fund Recipients are expected to have demonstrated a commitment to their heritage, and to be dedicated to the concept of "paying it forward." Every contribution is valuable, much appreciated by the fund recipients, and goes towards the goal of preserving Dr. Modjtahedi's legacy and fulfilling his wishes.

Warm regards,
